

2025 Teach the Children Convention

Sponsorship Opportunities

Friday February 28 & Saturday March 1, 2025

Welcome

Welcome to the 2nd annual Teach the Children Homeschool Convention! I am so excited you are considering sponsoring the 2025 Homeschool Convention. The homeschool community needs businesses and individuals, like you, to work alongside families, so they can become better equipped to teach their children.

Recent data states that since 2019 there has been a 33% increase in homeschool families in Washington State and a 25% increase in private schoolers. Despite the increasing number of homeschool families in Washington State, as well as the Pacific Northwest, there remains a severe lack of support systems for these families. Countless parents would love an opportunity to gain the resources, wisdom, fortitude, and inspiration that a convention provides. This often means traveling long distances. Why? Because, there are currently no conventions in our local Tri-Cities area. This is where businesses or individuals like you, alongside TTC, can come together to meet the needs of local homeschooling families.

The Exhibit Hall at the convention provides vendors with an opportunity to connect face-to-face with homeschool families in Washington, as well as Oregon and Idaho. TTC believes exhibitors should have the opportunity to build personal relationships with their customers to gain the trust necessary for long-term loyalty.

By working together with you, TTC desires to enhance the experience of the attendees while effectively expanding your reach among Washington homeschoolers and fostering growth for your organization and ours.

Thank you so much for your consideration and contribution. TTC looks forward to seeing homeschool families and vendors unite on February 28 - March 1, 2025. Many families will be blessed because of your generosity!

Sincerely,

Laura Battles, Director

The 2025 Buy it Here Giveaway is a fun raffle for attendees to participate in by using tickets they earn from making purchases in the exhibit hall. After selecting three cash prize winners, TTC will give away items donated by exhibitors, speakers, and sponsors.

WOULD YOU BOOST THE INCENTIVE BY DONATING A RESOURCE, GIFT CERTIFICATE, CURRICULUM OR OTHER ITEM AS A PRIZE?

Prize donors will be listed in the convention program. Donor must advise TTC of your donation by December 31, 2024 for inclusion in the program.
